Brain Box

A past-tense verb tells about something that has already happened. To change a verb to past tense, add a d to most words that end in e, and add ed to most other words. For example: Colin exercised in the gym last night. Colin pulled the rope.

A future-tense verb tells about something that will happen in the future. The word will is usually used with future-tense verbs. For example: Colin will exercise outside next weekend.
