Personal Passive – Impersonal Passive – It is said

1. Personal Passive

When we put an object of an active sentence into passive, it becomes subject of the passive sentence.

المعلم: أنس البلوي

Active sentence → The professor gave the students the books.

Passive sentence → The students were given the books.

We sometimes use a pronoun for the students or the books in its subject form (here: they).

Active sentence → The professor gave them the books.

Passive sentence → They were given the books.

We very often leave out the by-agent in the passive sentence (here: by the professor).

2. Impersonal Passive – It is said ...

The phrase It is said ... is an impersonal passive construction. We often use it in news.

Passive sentence 1 → It is said that children are afraid of ghosts.

Passive sentence 2 → Children are said to be afraid of ghosts.

The correct active sentence would be:

Active sentence → People say that children are afraid of ghosts.

Study Tip, Grammar

Were there any questions above that you got wrong? If so, learn these new patterns. The best way to do this is to use them in sentences that mean something to you. For example, in question 2 we had this pattern:

The shop is not very busy today compared to yesterday.

The shop is not as busy as it was yesterday.

Use these patterns in sentences of your own. For example:

My French is not very good compared to my English.

My French is not as good as my English.
