* "Hello! Welcome to the Halima Al-Sadia Centre ! I'm Um Issam. Why did you set up this centre? I began collecting traditional objects and clothes forty- five years ago because I wanted to save our traditions. Twenty-five years ago, I started my own business. Later, I realised I could also help poor women to start their own businesses." * "People always liked the traditional clothes that I wore . This is how I got the idea to design clothes, accessories, small bags for mobile phones, small carpets and furniture. I knew how to make traditional handicrafts because I learnt the skills from my mother and grandmother. I watched my mother work from the time I was eight years old. My aim, however, is to protect our tradition." * "I didn't want to keep my knowledge to myself. So, I decided to give courses on traditional crafts to poor women. The town municipality also helps me by providing all the materials we need." * "I also help disabled people by showing them how to make simple but attractive handmade materials, and we all enjoy spending time together."
