Question Two Read the following two texts then answer all the questions that follows each text.

Text A

The Arab world has many famous chemists in its history, but the person who is known as the founder of chemistry is probably Jabir Ibn Hayyan. He is most well-known for the beginning of the production of sulphuric acid. He also built a set of scales which changed the way in which chemists weighed items in a laboratory.

Ali Ibn Nafi' is also known as 'Ziryab' (or 'Blackbird', because of his beautiful voice). He was a gifted pupil of a famous musician from Baghdad, and it was his talent for music that led him to Cordoba in the ninth century CE. He is the person who established the first music school in the world in Cordoba, Al-Andalus, teaching musical harmony and composition. He revolutionized musical theory, and is also the person who introduced the oud to Europe.

Al-Kindi was a physician, philosopher, mathematician, chemist, musician and astronomer – a true polymath. He made ground-breaking discoveries in many of these fields, but it is probably his work in arithmetic and geometry that has made him most famous.

1. Ali ibn Nafi' made some important achievements in music. Write down two of these achievements.
2. Why is Ali ibn Nafi' also known as 'Ziryab'?
3. Write down the sentence which indicates that Al-Kindi was a polymath.
4. What does the underlined pronoun ( He ) refer to?
5. There are two subjects that have made Al-Kindi a famous person. Write them down.
6. Improving and developing the creativity of young people should be the responsibility of all the members of the society. Suggest three possible ways to improve the creativity of young people.

Text B

Business studies is a popular choice for students who are choosing a degree course in the UK. After graduating, some go on to further study, but most of them take up employment. We went to meet twenty-two-year-old Ricky Miles, who is about to graduate in the subject.

What exactly have you studied over those four years? Quite a lot! Maths, of course, Accounting, Finance and Economics. Oh yes, Marketing and Sales, too. I also did a course in Management, which is about recruiting and managing staff, and a course in to deal with conflict, and a course in Advertising. We all had to do IT, too, because computer skills are essential.

What did you most enjoy about the degree? The work experience, definitely. I learnt so much, both times, and of course, it looks great on my curriculum vitae. One of the companies offered me paid work last summer, so I managed to get even more experience that way. Also, I wouldn't have had much money last year if I hadn't had that job!

What kind of company was that, and what did you do there? It was a company that provides financial products- savings and pensions, mostly. At first, I just shadowed different people, watching what they were doing. Then I did quite a lot checking for them – you know, checking their calculations. When I went back in the summer, I was in the sales department. My job was to follow up web enquires, and send out further information to possible clients. I enjoyed it, and I wouldn't have had that opportunity if I hadn't done the work experience first.

1. Ricky Miles studied several courses at the university to get a degree in Business Studies. Write down three of these courses.
2. Students in the United Kingdom choose one of two paths after graduating. Write these two paths down.
3. Quote the sentence which shows the type of the company that Ricky Miles worked for last summer.
4. Find a word in the text which means " finding suitable employees"
5. Ricky Miles' job in the sales department required doing two things. Write these two things down.
6. Trade plays a vital role in improving and supporting the economy of a country. Think of this statement and in two sentences write down your point of view.

Literature Spot:

Read the following extract from " The Green Cornfield", and answer questions that follow:

And as I paused to hear his song while swift the sunny moments slid
Perhaps his mate sat listening long
And listened longer than I did

1. Find an example of alliteration in the above stanza.
2. What is the effect the poet is trying to achieve with alliteration?

Question Three Free Writing

Most people don't know how to choose their future job. Write an essay about how someone can choose the best job: discuss the factors that make a job suitable for someone and explain your point of view supporting it with examples.
