Everything, Anybody, Anything, After that, Everybody (x2),

We started our day at the Visitors' Centre. _____ was very excited. First, we went to the sand dunes. Next, we went to Barragh Canyon. _____ _____, we climbed up to the rock bridge at Um Fruth. _____ was hungry. We had lunch there. There wasn't _____ in the basket after lunch. Then, we went to watch the sunset at a sunset site. It was very quiet on the way back. We didn't see _____ all the way back. It was a great trip. I took photos of _____.

The Visitors' Centre at Wadi Rum is big and modern. Tourists can find everything there like maps, postcards, information, a restaurant and a craft shop. I got a map for our visit and we ate in the restaurant. After that, we went to the craft shop, and bought some postcards for my aunts.

Everybody meets the jeep guides in front of the Visitors' Centre. They know everything about Wadi Rum. Our guide was very friendly and helpful.

We were at Wadi Rum all day. We did lots of climbing. We also watched some professional kite-flying. On the way back, everybody felt very tired, but we didn't want to go home.

Ibrahim,

1. What is the Visitors' Centre like?

2. What can tourists find there?

3. Did Ibrahim buy anything at the craft shop?

4. What do the jeep guides know?

5. What did Ibrahim do in Wadi Rum?

6. How did everybody feel on the way back?

7. Why do you think they didn't want to go home?

8. What do the underlined words refer to?
