8) Free Writing:

In your ANSWER BOOKLET, write about 50 words on the following topic: (SB 8/45)

1 Write a four-paragraph essay about one renewable energy source, Write about the advantages and disadvantages.

Wind power is one of the cleanest and 'greenest' types of renewable energy. Wind is converted into energy by wind turbines, which rotate when the wind blows and generate electricity from the kinetic power of the wind.

Of course, the most important advantage is that wind power is renewable. It is also the form of energy that produces the least pollution when the source is being converted into energy. The more we use wind power, the more we can reduce our dependence on fossil fuels. The initial cost of wind turbines has reduced steadily since wind power was introduced, and once they have been installed, energy is very cheap and reliable. Wind power is also very beneficial to the economy, since it creates jobs for local people in installation and maintenance of the turbines.

Despite the numerous advantages, there are some disadvantages that need to be considered. First of all, wind turbines are quite noisy, so cannot be put near residential areas. Secondly, the turbines may disturb the habitats of wild animals because they need to be dug very deep into the earth. The third and final disadvantage is that wind power is unpredictable, except in certain regions, and therefore turbines are better installed in these regions.

In my opinion, wind power is the best energy source for a large number of regions, especially in countries that have a lot of wind. If the initial costs can be paid, it is a cheap resource, which produces no pollution. If the area has little or unreliable wind, wind power will not produce enough energy.

2 Imagine you have taken part in the Mastermind programme about a topic of your choice. Write a review of the programme describing what of questions you were asked. (SB 7/51)

Two nights ago, I took part in Mastermind, and it was one of the best experiences of my life. I was so pleased to have been chosen to compete on the show, because I love my subject, the Ancient Romans, and I like to think I know a lot about them.

When I arrived, I was incredibly nervous. The host asked easy questions at first. He asked me when the Roman Empire had begun, and I said that it had begun in the 8th century BCE. He then asked me who the founder of Rome was, and I said that there were two possibilities; Aeneas or Romulus. He asked me all kinds of difficult questions, but I got almost all of them correct. The second round was more difficult because it was general knowledge, but I did quite well!

Finally, the host congratulated me and the audience applauded. It was so exciting to be part of such a brilliant show, and I am grateful for the experience. Now all I have to do is wait to see if I'll be in the final round.

3 Write a three paragraph essay about a non-profit organization. (SB 7/55)

Eco Jordan is a non-profit organisation in Irbid that works for preserving Jordan's natural resources. All its members are young people aged between 15 and 22.

It organises awareness campaigns for the youth about the importance of preserving Jordan's natural resources. Moreover, it arranges social gatherings and entertainment to raise money. The money that it collects is usually given to larger organisations, such as the NRA, because these are led by specialists and professionals and have more connections.

They are kind to Oliver, but try to teach him to steal. Luckily, Oliver also finds good friends, like Mr. Brownlow and Rose Maylie, who want to look after him - but can they protect him from the difficult life of a poor, homeless boy in 19th-century London?*

5 Write a story about an unusual or exciting event that happened to you when you were a child.(SB 7/69)

It was the most exciting day of my life! I had been waiting for it for so long, and now it was finally here. I was going to meet my idol, Dana Haidar. She was coming to our school to talk to us about sports, and I could hardly wait ...

I hurried downstairs, said good morning to my family, and ate my breakfast as quickly as possible. Later, sitting in my lessons, I tried to focus on Maths and Science problems. I couldn't believe that in a few hours I would meet the woman who had encouraged me to start my favourite sport: taekwondo. At last, the bell rang, and we all made our way down to the school hall to listen to her speak. For many of us it was the first time we'd seen someone famous. She talked to us for an hour or so, but unfortunately I was so starstruck that I can't remember anything she said!

The day ended with me getting Dana's autograph, which I am very proud of. Even if I can't remember anything, I can still tell people that I met her once!

After tasting the dessert that you prepared as an entry into our cookery show, I would like to offer the following criticisms. First of all, we were impressed that you chose this dessert because it is very complicated to make. However, you could have used ready-made pastry, instead of trying to make it yourself.

Moreover, you might have impressed us more if you had added more garnishing for a more attractive presentation.

We hope this advice encourages you to keep trying to create new dishes. Good luck in the future.
