Read the following text carefully, and then in your ANSWER BOOKLET answer all the questions that follow. Your answers should be based on the text.

I was born in the country, and for the first eighteen years of my life I lived there. My family's farm was in the middle of nowhere, five kilometers from our nearest neighbors and ten from the nearest school, shops and post office. As a child, I enjoyed the open-air life, but when I was eighteen I went to university and couldn't believe how incredible city life was. In comparison with my life on the farm, my new life was exciting, challenging and very varied. I got to know a lot of new people and I went to many places. Of course everything moves much more quickly in the city and that can sometimes be stressful, but, at least you know you're alive. In the country, you sometimes forget!

Obviously, city life has its disadvantages, like the noise, the traffic and the crowds, of people, but these things don't worry me too much. I don't drive so traffic problems and parking difficulties don't affect me; it only takes me ten minutes to get to the supermarket by taxi, whereas in the old days in the country, a shopping trip used to take half a day.

Maybe. I'll want to go back to the peace and quiet of the country one day but for how I'm enjoying the hustle and bustle of city life.

The situation

Read the scenario. How would you react if you were in this situation?

Omar and Nader are driving across the Jordanian desert in their 4x4 vehicle when a sandstorm, very common in the area, blows up. There is nothing they can do about the weather and unfortunately sand gets into the engine. Despite their best efforts, the engine simply will not start and so they are forced to change their plans. The two men are still 30 kilometres away from their destination that is around 12 hours walking. They know that it is located to the north. However, they are forced to abandon the car and continue the journey on foot, carrying all that they can with them. They have supplies in the car but can only take with them what will fit in their backpacks.

The weather is extremely hot, making walking by day very difficult, but they are in good health and fit enough to walk 30 kilometres under normal conditions. In contrast, the desert is very cold at night and temperatures can choose from the eleven items they have in the car.
