Health conditions in Jordan are among the best in the Middle East. This is largely due to the country's commitment to making healthcare for all a top priority. Advances in education, economic conditions, sanitation, clean water, diet and housing have made our community healthier.

As a result of careful planning, the number of healthcare services has been increasing rapidly over the past years. More than 800 different kinds of healthcare centres have been built, as well as 188 dental clinics. In 2012 CE, 98 percent of Jordanian children were fully immunized, thanks to immunisation teams that had been working towards this goal for several years. Although there were remote areas of the country where people had been without consistent access to electricity and safe water, almost 99 percent of the country's population now has access.

Although the country has been focusing mainly on improving its primary healthcare facilities, it has not neglected its advanced medical facilities. The reputation of Jordanian doctors has spread in the region, and now many more patients come to Jordan for open heart surgery. In Jordan, the open heart surgery programme started in 1970 CE in Amman.

The life expectancy figures show that Jordan's healthcare system is successful. In 1965 CE, the average Jordanian's life expectancy was age 50. In 2012 CE, this average life expectancy had risen to 73.5. According to UNICEF statistics, between 1981 CE and 1991 CE, Jordan's infant mortality rates declined more rapidly than anywhere else in the world – from 70 deaths per 1,000 births in 1981 CE to only 32 deaths per 1,000 births in 2014 CE.

The low infant mortality rate, as well as the excellent healthcare system, have been contributing factors to Jordan's healthy population growth, which will result in a strong work force with economic benefits for the whole country.

Ten-year-old Adeeb al-Balooshi from Dubai , is going to travel to seven countries on a tour which has been organised and funded by Shiekh Hamdan bin Mohammed , Crown Prince of Dubai .

The boy caught Sheikh Hamdan's attention with his invention - a prosthetic limb for his father . The Sheikh has taken a special interest in the boy , and hopes that the tour he is sponsoring for Adeeb will give the young inventor more self-confidence and inspire other young Emirati inventors .

Adeeb got the idea for a special kind of prosthetic leg while he was at the beach with his family . His father , who wears an artificial leg , could not swim in the sea as he could not risk getting his leg wet . This inspired Adeeb to invent a waterproof prosthetic leg .

Adeeb is going to visit the USA, France , the UK, Ireland , Belgium , Italy and Germany, where he will be staying with relatives . However , while he is in Germany , Adeeb will not be spending all his time sightseeing . He will be working with a specialist doctor to build the appendage . He will also be attending a course on prosthetic and learning about different kinds of medical apparatus .

Adeeb has invented several other devices , including a tiny cleaning robot and a heart monitor , which is attached to a car seat belt . In the case of an emergency , rescue services and the driver's family will be automatically connected with the driver through the special checking device .

Question One :

Adnan , a professional craftsman, is at work in his studio. With the oven at 1400 degrees centigrade, 20 hours a day, a glass-making studio isn't the most comfortable place to be. For Adnan, however, this is more than just a job. 'My family has been blowing glass for around 700 years,' he says. 'My father learnt the craft from his father, and he taught it to me when I was a child.'

Adnan is passionate about this ancient craft, and regularly gives demonstrations and workshops to teach young people the skills of glassblowing. He strongly believes that unless we interest more young people in learning the craft, nobody will know how to make hand-blown glass in the future. 'these days, young people don't always want to follow their parents' professions, and, added to that, glassblowing isn't an easy job. It has to be an obsession, as it is for me !'

Adnan still uses the technique that was first developed by the Phoenicians some 2000 years ago. First, he pushes a thin metal blowpipe into the boiling hot furnace. Secondly, he lifts out the liquid sand and lays it on a metal plate. After that, he blows the red-hot glass until it becomes more flexible. Then he pulls and bends the glass into shape. He has to work extremely quickly because the liquid sand is already solidifying into glass

Adnan is making a delicate swan. Through the semi-opaque glass, you can see fine lines of turquoise, green and blue.

'The sand gives us transparent, or "white", glass,' Adnan explains. 'We get this beautiful dark, cobalt blue by adding the metal cobalt to the melted glass. Then, this blue becomes a lighter, sea-green turquoise after adding copper. Finally, we decorate the glass by hand.'

'These days we recycle broken glass . We also use commercially produced colours instead of using natural ingredients as in the past. Apart from that, nothing else about this craft has changed through the centuries. You can't use a machine to do this work,' he says. 'The old ways are still the best .

1. The craft of glassmaking nowadays is different from glass -making in the past in two aspects . Write down two of these differences .
2. More young people are not interested in learning the craft of glassblowing because of many reasons . Write down two of these reasons .

امتحان مستوی ثالث رقم ۳ (الأستاذ : فراس أبو كرم) (۰۷۹۹۵۲۲۱۶۰)

Ibn Bassal was a writer , a scientist and an engineer who lived in AL-Andalus in the eleventh century CE . He worked in the court of Al-Ma'mun ,who was the King of Toledo . His great passions were botany , which is the study of plants , and agriculture . Although he was a great scholar , he was also a practical man . All of his writing came from his own " hands-on " experience of working the land .

One of the many things which Ibn Bassal achieved was A book of Agriculture . The book consisted of sixteen chapters which explain how best to grow trees , fruit and vegetables , as well as herbs and sweet-smelling flowers ; perhaps the most famous chapter of all was the one that described how to treat different types of soil . Ibn Bassal also worked out how to irrigate the land by finding underground water and digging wells . He designed water pumps and irrigation systems . All of these things were passed on through his writing .

The influence of Ibn Bassal's book was enormous . As farmers down the generations followed his instructions and advice , the land became wonderfully fertile and produced more than enough food for the fast -growing population . The irrigation systems that he and his followers put in place are still in evidence in Spain . Although his name is not widely known , Ibn Bassal's legacy to the world has been great .

امتحان مستوى ثالث رقم ٣ (الأستاذ : فراس أبو كرم) (٠٧٩٩٥٢٢١٦٠)

Text B:

It's normal to feel a bit sad from time to time .However, studies show that negative emotions can harm the body . Anger can also have harmful effects on health . When you see red , your blood pressure is raised and you can suffer from headaches, sleep problems and digestive problems . However, what about positive feelings and attitudes ?Until recently , scientists had not investigated whether there is a link between positive feelings and good health .

Then , in a study that had followed more than 6,000 men and women aged 25 to 74 for 20 years , researchers found that positivity reduced the risk of heart disease . Other factors influencing health included a supportive network of family and friends , and an optimistic outlook on life .

The research showed that children who were more able to stay focused on a task , and who had a more positive attitude to life at age seven , were usually in better health 30 years later .

The study has been controversial . Some health professionals believe that bad lifestyle choices , for example smoking or lack of exercise , are the reason of heart diseases and other illnesses, and not an individual's attitude . The researchers, while agreeing, raise the question : why are people making bad lifestyles decisions ? Do more optimistic people make better and healthier lifestyle choices ?

The researchers appreciate that not everyone's personal circumstances and environment make it possible to live without worry . However , they believe that if we teach children to develop positive thinking, and to "bounce back" after a setback, these qualities will improve their overall health in the future .

1. What does the underlined word (bounce back) mean ?
2. Find a word which means (a problem that stops progress)
3. Find a word which means (cast doubt on something)
4. Replace the underlined words (feel a bit sad) with the colour idiom which has the similar meaning .
