2. How long had he been using the standard prosthetic hand ? For nine years.

The new hand, which was developed by Swiss and Italian scientists, was a huge improvement. With it, Sorensen could not only pick up and manipulate objects, but he could also feel them. "When I held an object, I could feel if it was soft or hard, round or square", he explained. He said that the sensations were almost the same as the ones he felt with his other hand. Unfortunately, Sorensen was only taking part in trials, and the equipment is not ready for general use yet. He was only allowed to wear it for a month, for safety reasons.

Mention three characteristics for the prosthetic hand. a. pick up objects . b. manipulate objects c. feel objects
 Why was Sorenson only allowed to wear the prosthetic hand for a month? For safety reasons.

So now he has his old artificial hand back. However, he hopes that soon he will be wearing the new type of hand again. He is looking forward to the time when similar artificial limbs are available for the thousands of people who need them. He will have helped to transform their lives.

1. Which hand is he wearing now? Why? His old artificial hand

Ibn Bassal

Ibn Bassal was a writer, a scientist and an engineer who lived in Al-Andalus in the eleventh century CE. He worked in the court of Al-Ma'mun, who was the king of Toledo. His great passions were botany, which is the study of plants and agriculture. Although he was a great scholar, he was also a practical man and all of his writing came from his own "hands-on" experience of working the land.

Ibn Bassal also worked out how to irrigate the land by finding underground water and digging wells. He designed water pumps and irrigation systems. All of these things were passed on through his writing.

1. Name two of Ibn Bassal Achievements ?

Writing a book of agriculture – designing water pumps – irrigation systems. Finding underground water – digging wells

The influence of Ibn Bassal's book was enormous. As farmers down the generations followed his instructions and advice, the land became wonderfully fertile and produced more than enough food for the fast-growing population. The irrigation systems that he and his followers put in place are still in evidence in Spain. Although his name is not widely known, Ibn Bassal's legacy to the world has been great.

Masdar City – a positive step?

Mega projects are extremely large investment projects, which are designed to encourage economic growth and bring new benefits to cities. Although megaprojects vary in terms of size and cost, they are all, by definition, expensive, public projects that attract a high level of interest and media coverage. Projects range from motorways, airports, stations, tunnels, bridges, to entire city complexes. etc.

- 1. The writer states two benefits of creating megaprojects. Write them down. a. They encourage economic growth. b. They bring new benefits to cities.
- 2. What do mega projects have in common ? = disadvantages : They are expensive, public projects.
- 3. The text provides many examples of mega projects . Mention two . Motorways, airports, stations, tunnels, bridges and entire city complexes.

The concept of a megaproject is always based on the benefits it brings to a community. However, many megaprojects have been criticised because of their negative effects on a community or the environment. This essay will look at issues with regard to Masdar City, a megaproject in Abu Dhabi.

- 1. What are the disadvantage of mega projects ?
- They have negative effects on a community and the environment. 2. expensive 2. Ouote the sentence which shows the main reason to criticize mega projects ?
- "However, many megaprojects have been criticised because of their negative effects on a community or the environment."

Masdar City, which began its development in 2006 CE, will be the world's first carbon-neutral, zero waste artificially-created city. Covering an area of six square kilometres, when it is completed in 2025 CE, it is expected to house more than 40,000 residents, 50,000 commuters, and 1,500 businesses involved in mainly environmentally-friendly products. The city will run entirely on renewable energy sources. It is built on an advanced energy grid which monitors exactly how much electricity is being used by every outlet in the complex.

- 1. What makes Masdar city environmentally-friendly city ?
 - a. Masdar City will be the world's first carbon-neutral, zero waste artificially-created city.
 - b. Masdar City will have environmentally-friendly products.

Furthermore, in order to reduce its carbon footprint, Masdar City will be a car-free zone, designed to be pedestrian and cycle-friendly. Electric, driverless cars will operate as public transport vehicles, and the city will be connected to other locations by a network of roads and railways.

- 1. There are many procedures that will be implemented to reduce carbon footprint in Masdar city. Mention two. a. Masdar City will be a car-free zone, designed to be pedestrian and cycle-friendly.
 - b. Electric, driverless cars will operate as public transport vehicles.

Energy will be provided by solar power and wind farms, and there are also plans to build the world's largest hydrogen plant. A desalination plant will be used to provide the city's water, with 80% of water used being recycled. Biological waste will be used as an energy source too, and industrial waste will be recycled. The current residents of Masdar City are all students at the Masdar Institute of Science and Technology, a university whose students are fully committed to finding solutions to the world's energy problems. While the project has the support of many global, environmental and conservation Organisations, there is some criticism of it. It is felt that, instead of building an Artificial sustainable city, sustainability should be made a priority of existing cities.

1. Certain power resources will supply Masdar City with energy. Write down two of these resources .1. Solar power2. wind farms3. a hydrogen plant4. Biological waste.

2. Name two materials that will be recycled in Masdar city. 1. water : 80% 2. industrial waste

In conclusion, the benefits of Masdar City for the community and the environment greatly outweigh any disadvantages. If the aims of the developers are realised, Masdar City will be a blueprint for future urban planning that will inspire similar megaprojects in other countries.

1. What will happen if the aims of the developers are realized ?

The Time we spend at school - 1

Afew years ago, as many as 1,000 schools across the USA started making school years longer by adding up to ten extra days to the school year or by making each school day longer by half an hour. This was because it was found that secondary school students in the USA and the UK were spending the least time at school, with an average school year of 187 days. The typical Jordanian school year is longer than this (187 days). However, none of these (average school year in Uk, USA and Jordan) are nearly as long as the school year in countries like Japan and South Korea. South Koreans attend schools for 220 days per year, and in Japan the school year numbers 243 days.

According to a study by the organization for Economic Co-operation and Development (OECD), students in Japan, Indonesia and South Korea spend the most time studying in the world. They (students in Japan, Indonesia and South Korea) Want to learn as much as they (students in Japan, Indonesia and South Korea) Can to ensure excellent exam grades. They go to school for about nine hours, although this (going to school for about 9 hours) includes optional after-school tuition and activities. They also spend about three hours on homework everyday, which (They also spend about three hours on homework everyday) is three times as much as many other countries. Their high academic achievements do suggest that the longer you study, the better you do in final exams.

In Finland, however, students are usually given less than half an hour of homework per night, and they (students in Finland) attend school for fewer and shorter days than 85 % of other developed nations. Despite this (attend schools for), they (students in Finland) achieve top marks in subjects like Maths and Science. In addition, most students also speak at least two, and often three, languages fluently.

The contradictory views of the study suggest that the number and length of school days is not the only factor in determining whether students will succeed at school or not.

A visiting student's blog post : Anita's blog - 2

Two summers ago, I (Anita) spent five months studying Arabic at the German-Jordanian University near Madaba. As my father is originally from Jordan, I grew up speaking Arabic as well as German. However, I had never studied Arabic formally, and when the opportunity came up for me to spend a year in Jordan studying Arabic, I didn't hesitate for one moment.

I have relatives in Jordan and they (relatives) arranged for me to stay with a wonderful family who (a wonderful family) live just outside Madaba. I was amazed by the number of international students there, (Jordan) who (international students) were not only from Germany, but from all over the world. Most of them (international students) had studied Arabic to a high level. I'm very familiar with colloquial Arabic, which (colloquial Arabic) is what my family speaks and understands. The Arabic class, in modern standared Arabic, was challenging, especially the grammar.

Every week, we (my family and I) had to learn a vocabulary list of around 50 words. We covered many topics. Living with a family helped to improve my Arabic-speaking skills because, while all the students heard Arabic in the classroom and streets, I could also practice it (Arabic) at home. I really put my back into it, and I earned an A on the course.

What impressed me most about students in Jordan was their (students in Jordan) behaviour and their attitude to studying. All the students who (All the students) I met appreciated the importance of their (All the students) university education and the opportunities it would give them (All the students) to contribute to their country's prosperity. They also showed extremely positive values. Everybody was honest, and people discussed problems rather than getting angry if they (people) disagreed with each other.

As someone who enjoys delicious food, beautiful places and friendly, hospitable people, studying in Jordan is one of the best decisions I have made in my life. I made many new friends. I also improved my Arabic speaking, writing and reading skills. My dream is to be fluent in Arabic oneday- and as I intend to return to Jordan as often as I can, I know I'm going to make this dream a reality.

Space Schools - 3 – مدرسة الفضاء

Studio schools are pioneering schools which (studio schools) receive funding as well as support from private businesses, and which (studio schools) seek to encourage young people to undertake a less conventional form of secondary education. These schools often specialize in one specific area, whilist understanding that the same broad range of skills and qualifications should be made available to all young people.

One such school has recently opened to educate fourteen-to eighteen-year-olds who (fourteen-to eighteen-yearolds) have a special interest in working in the space industry. Students follow a tailor-made curriculum at the school, including subjects such as Astronomy and Astrophysics. Lessons are a mixture of small-class tutorials, with projects supervised by leading companies in both the space and technology industries.

Prominent scientists and engineers are brought in as guest lecturers, with students aiming to achieve top grades in their (students) Maths and Science exams. When they (students) leave schools, they (students) will be well-placed to take any number of different career paths. 'They (students) don't have to become astronauts'! says a spokesperson for the school. 'Excellent grades in science and technology subjects can open any doors and lead to a variety of career opportunities.'

How to revise for exams - 4

Is it too late to start revising now?

A – No, it is never too late to start revising ! The first thing I would do is to draw up a revision timetable.

How should you draw up a timetable ?

B – Look at all the subjects you have to do, and work out when you are going to work on each one (subject). It is a good idea to change the order of the subjects in your timetable for each day. Try doing a little English, followed by some Maths, then Biology, and so on. This way, by changing the focus of your revision, you keep your mind fresh.

Is it best to get up early, or to revise late at night?

C – The earlier you start in the morning, the more beneficial your revision will be, because that's when you feel most awake and your memory is at its (your memory) best. I'd also recommend studying for 30-minute periods, and then taking a break. It's been proved that concentration starts to decrease after half an hour, so frequent breaks will help the brain to recover and concentration to return.

What do you mean by frequent break?

D – By a break, I mean any change of activity from studying. It (a break) could be something as simple as just getting up from your desk and listening to some music, or walking around for ten minutes.

How much exercise do you need ?

E – Physical activity is very important, of course, especially when you are studying. Exercise will make a huge difference to the way you feel. The physical activity will increase your heart rate, and in turn, that will increase your blood circulation. It (physical activity) also sends more oxygen to the brain, which (sending more oxygen to the brain) makes you revise more efficiently !

Do you mind giving me some advice about diet?

 \mathbf{F} – Nutrition is very important. You should try to eat as much fruit and vegetables as you can. It's essential not to become dehydrated, so drink lots of water.

After school - 5

In England, almost 50% of school leavers go on to higher education. The figure has not always been as high as this (50%). Twenty years ago, it was closer to 30%, and thirty years before that, it (The percentage (figure) of school leavers who go on to a higher education.) Was only about 5%. Another huge change has been financial. Before 1998 CE, higher education in the UK was completely free for UK citizens. Since then, tuition fees have been introduced. Most students borrow this money from the government. They (most students) don't have to repay it (this money) immediately. Instead, they pay it back slowly out of future earnings.

Despite the high cost, most students choose to study away from home. A recent survey of 17,000 students revealed that only 7% wanted to stay at home while they (most students) studied for their degree. Of course for most young people, living away from home means borrowing even more money from the government. So why don't students choose to avoid debt by staying at home, where they (students) don't have to pay rent? Most of them (students) say that they (students) want to move to the university of their (students) choice, rather than the nearest one (university). Another strong motive is the desire to live in a new culture.

Where do these students live? Many (these students) have rooms in halls of residence, especially in their (these students) first year; others (students) rent flats or houses. A lucky minority live in property that their (lucky minority) parents have bought for them (lucky minority). Most of them (students) need to learn to cook, do their (students) own washing and manage their(students) time and money.

Learning a foreign Language : - 6

Speaking a forien language, it is claimed, improves the functionality of your brain in several different ways. Learning new vocabulary and grammar rules provide the brain with beneficial 'exercise', which (beneficial exercise) improves memory. As well as exercising the brain, it is thought that learning a new language also presents the brain with unique challenges. These include recognising different language systems. These skills improve your chances of success in other problem-solving tasks as well. It is said that students who learn foreign languages do better, on the whole, in general tests in Maths, reading and vocabulary than students who have only mastered their mother tongue.

According to a study carried out by Pennsylvania State University, USA. Multilingual people are able to switch between two systems of speech, writing, and structure quite easily. It has been proved that they (Multilingual people) are also able to switch easily between completely different tasks. One experiment required participants to operate a driving simulator while carrying out separate tasks at the same time. The experiment showed that multilingual participants were less distracted by the other tasks and therefore made fewer driving errors.

It is believed that language learning can also improve your decision-making skills. When you speak a foreign language, you are constantly weighing up subtle differences in meaning of a word or the way that an utterance is made. This process is then transferred subconsciously to other situations in which judgment is called for, and decisions have to be made.

Finally, learning a foreign language can also improve your ability to use your mother tongue more effectively. As you become more aware of the way that a language works, you begin to apply it to the language that you use everyday. The skills you obtain from learning a foreign language, therefore, can make you a better speaker and writer in your own language.

Education in Jordan - 7

Our country has a high standard of education. This is mainly due to the fact that the government considers education a necessity. All schools, from kindergarten to secondary, are the responsibility of the Ministry of Education (MOE). Pre-school and kindergarten education is optional, followed by ten years of free, compulsory education. For higher education, students enter university, either for academic or vocational education.

Students can attend one of ten public universities. A large number of Jordanian students choose to study at these institutions, as well as foreign students from all over the world. These are undergraduates studying for a first degree, or postgraduate studying for a Master's degree, a PhD or a higher diploma.

The three universities with the most undergraduates are the University of Jordan in Amman, Yarmuk University in Irbid and Al Balqa Applied University in Salt. These are all public universities. An example of a newer university is the German-Jordanian University in Amman, which was set up in 2005 CE. It is a collaboration between the MOHE and Germany's Federal Ministry of Education and Research, and it follows Germany's model of education in applied sciences.

For students who wish to complete their university studies while working at the same time, it is also possible in some Jordanian universities to enroll onto online distance learning programmes. In the future, this option will become available in many other universities.

8 Our country's imports and exports (SB, p.66) صادرات وواردات بلدنا 2017

In this report, we (researchers) will look at the countries that (countries) Jordan trades with and what goods it (Jordan) exports and imports.

First, let's look at exports. Jordan is rich in potash and phosphate, and the extraction industry for these minerals is one of the largest in the world. Not surprisingly, two of Jordan's largest exports are chemicals and fertilisers. Pharmaceuticals and other industries represent 30% of Jordan's Gross Domestic Product(GDP), and 75% of Jordan's pharmaceuticals are exported. However, the majority (65%) of the economy is dominated by services, mostly travel and tourism. Most of Jordan's exports go to Iraq, the USA, India and Saudi Arabia.

Now let's look at imports. Unlike some other countries in the Middle East, Jordan does not have large oil or gas reserves. For that reason, Jordan has to import oil and gas for its (Jordan's) energy needs. Its (Jordan's) other main imports are cars, medicines and wheat. In 2013 CE, 23.6 % of Jordan's imports were from Saudi Arabia. This (23.6) was followed by the EU, with 17.6 % of its imports. Other imports have come from China and the United States.

Jordan has more free trade agreements than any other Arab country, and it trades freely with many countries, including the USA, Canada and Malaysia. Which other areas are important for Jordan's trade? Jordan first signed a trade agreement with the EU in 1997 CE. It (Jordan)signed a free trade agreement with Egypt, Morocco and Tunisian in 2004 CE. In 2011 CE, another trade agreement was made with the EU, Egypt, Morocco and Tunisia. Trade with the EU and North Africa in particular is likely to grow.

Stepping into the business world - 10

Business Studies is a popular choice for students who (students) are choosing a degree course in the UK. After graduating, some (students) go on to further study, but most of them (students) take up employment. Many large companies offer graduate training schemes, which (graduate training scheme) are a kind of apprenticeship. We went to meet twenty-two-year-old Ricky Miles, who (Ricky Miles) is about to graduate in the subject.

How long have you (Ricky Miles) been studying Business Studies, Ricky?

It's a four-year course, including two periods of work experience. Each one (period of work experience) lasted six months, but they (two periods of work experience) weren't in the same year.

What exactly have you studied over those four years ?

Quite a lot! Maths, of course, Accounting ,Finance and Economics. Oh yes ,Marketing and Sales, too. I (Ricky Miles) also did a course in Management, which (a course of management) is about recruiting and managing staff, and how to deal with conflict, and a course in Advertising. We (students) all had to do IT, too, because computer skills are essential .

What did you most enjoy about the degree ?

The work experience, definitely. I learnt so much, both times, and of course it (work experience) looks great on my curriculum vitae. One of the companies offered me paid work last summer, so I managed to get even more experience that way. Also, I wouldn't have had much money last year if I hadn't had that job!

What kind of company was that, and what did you do there (in a company)?

It was a company that (a company) provides financial products – savings and pensions, mostly. At first I just 'shadowed' different people, watching what they (different people) were doing . Then I did quite a lot of checking for them (different people) – you know, checking their (different people) calculations. When I went back in the summer, I was in the sales department. My job was to follow up web enquiries, and send out further information to possible clients . I enjoyed it (Rickey's job), and I wouldn't have had that opportunity if I hadn't done the work experience first.

What are you planning to do next?

I've just applied for a job with a bank. I have the right qualifications, but I know there will be a lot of other applicants. I'll just have to wait and see if I get an interview. If I do, I'll have to prepare really carefully.

The world of business - 11

This is an interview with a Jordanian businessman about his experiences in China.

Doing business in China

Today, we (interviwer) talk to Mr Ghanem, a businessman based in Amman who (Mr Ghanem) often visits China. We asked him (Mr Ghanem) when he first started doing business with China.

'I've been doing business with China for many years. My first trip there was in 2004 CE, and it (first trip) was not very successful.'

Why was it not successful?

'I worked for a small computer company in Amman. They(a small computer company) sent me to China when I was still quite young. If only (If only = I wish) the company had realised that the Chinese respect age and experience more than youth!'

Did you make any mistakes on that visit?

'Yes! I wish I had researched Chinese culture before I visited the country. In order to be successful in China, you need to earn their (Chinese people) respect (disrespect = opposite). Chinese business people will always ask about a company's successes in the past. However, because I worked for a new company, I could not talk about its (a new company) track record. We (Mr Ghanem's company) did not do any business deals on that first trip.'

When did you learn how to be successful in China?

'I joined a larger company and they (a large company) sent me on a cultural awareness course. On my next visit to China, it (the next visit to China) felt as if I hadn't known anything on my first visit!'

What advice can you give to people wanting to do business in China?

'Before I visit a company, I send recommendations from previous clients. I also send my business card with my job position and qualifications translated into Chinese.'

Can you tell us about your last meeting in China?

'Of course! I arrived on time. You must not arrive late, as this shows disrespect. Then, when I met the company director, I shook hands with him gently. I began the meeting by making small talk about my interesting experiences in China. During the meeting, I made sure that my voice and body language were calm and controlled. I never told a joke, as this may not be translated correctly or could cause offence.'

Is it a successful meeting?

'Yes, it was. I knew that the director had researched my business thoroughly before the meeting, so I was prepared for his (the director) detailed questions. When I began negotiating, I started with the important issues. The Chinese believe in avoiding conflict. It is always important to be patient. I was prepared to compromise, so in the end, the meeting was successful.'

You also need to know who the target market is – for example, the age group or income of the people who (people) might buy it (your product). Not only that, you should know all about the competition – that is, similar products on the market. Why is your product superior to others (other products) and why does it (your product) have better value?

In addition, you should know exactly which people you are speaking to, and what their (people) needs are. For example, if they (people) represent a middle-class department store in a humble neighbourhood, be ready to explain why your particular product would suit customers who (customers) do not have lots of money. What makes your product perfect for them (customers)? Most of all, you need to believe in what you're selling, and the best way to do that is to use it!

2. Prepare and practice حضر نفسك وتدرّب

Plan your presentation carefully, not just what you will say, but how you will say it _(your presentation). Will you read it word by word, use notes or memorise it? Whatever you decide, it is always a good idea to have a list of your main points, in case something interrupts you, or you simply freeze with nerves (it happens!). Then practise it _(your presentation), if possible in front of colleagues. Make changes and practise it again.

3. Be professional کن محترفا

Keep your presentation short and simple. Start with some friendly comments. For example ,thank your hosts for allowing you to speak to them (hosts), and compliment their (hosts) company. Remember to speak slowly and clearly. It is important to appear confident (even if you're nervous!). While you're speaking, don't keep your head down. Instead, look round the room and make eye contact with your audience. Smile! When you've finished speaking, invite questions. If you don't know the answers, don't pretend! Thank the questioner and promise to find out the answer (and do it (finding out the answers)!). Finally, have a summary of your presentation ready to hand out at the end of the session. I wish I had known all this (information of experience) when I started out in business! Good luck!.

Career choices - 13

Fatima Musa is talking about her career as an interpreter. Listen and read. Check your answers to exercise 1.

My job as an interpreter

My name is Fatima Musa and I (Fatima) have worked as an interpreter for five years. Many students have emailed me (Fatima) about my work because they (students) want to know what it would be like to do my (Fatima) job. So here is my reply.

I (Fatima) have always been fond of languages. My father worked in many different countries when I (Fatima) was young and we usually travelled with him(Fatima's father). When we visited a country, I always wanted to learn the language. At school I was very good at English. Therefore, I decided on a career as an interpreter.

My job now involves going to important conferences and seminars around the world. When a person speaks in English at a conference, I listen to what they say through headphones. I then translate into Arabic while the speaker is talking. I give the translation through headphones to other people at the meeting. This means that anyone in the room who speaks Arabic can understand what people are saying.

Is it an easy job? Not at all. English is not the same in all English-speaking countries. For example, the English words that are used in India are sometimes different to the words that people use in the UK, the USA or Australia. As well as knowing regional English, you also need to know a lot of specialist language. Some of the words that (the words) are used to talk about business, science or law, for example, make it almost a different language!

Unless you have a language degree, you will not be able to become an interpreter. Provided that you have a postgraduate qualification, you will probably get a job as an interpreter quite quickly. If you get an interview for a job, you will need to show that you have good listening skills and a clear speaking voice. You will also need to show that you can think quickly and that you are able to concentrate for long periods of time. If you are successful, it is a secure and rewarding job. You will probably need to travel a lot, but that is not a problem as long as you enjoy visiting other countries.

It is a very responsible job. I am aware that if I translate things badly, it could affect an important law or trade agreement between countries. However, you get a huge feeling of satisfaction when you know that people understand everything that you translate.

Quotations المستوى الثالث

Technology is a tool because it is useful and effective way of involving children . 3. "Unless the exchange be in love and kindly justice, it will but lead some greed and others to hunger." Gibran Khalil Gibran (1883 CE – 1931 CE).

15- Perhaps his mate sat listening long,	(the female bird sat listening to the song)	لعل رفيقته (زوجته) جلست تستمع اليه طويلا
16- And listened longer than I did.	(the poet left the cornfield)	واستمعت له لفترة اطول مما انا استمعت

speck	something small	صغير
in accord	something in agreement	تناغم
tender	fresh and young	يانع
nest	A bird lays eggs in it	عش
stalk	The long, upright part of the plant that support the leaves	ساق النبتة

1. The poet feels content as she walks through a cornfield.

2. The skylark flying in the sky.

3. It doesn't sing as it flies lower.

- 4. The butterflies move quickly in the cornfield.
- 5. The skylark's nest is hidden in the cornfield.
- 6. The poet imagines that its (companion / mate / the female bird) is also listening somewhere in the cornfield.

Answer the questions about the poem.

1. The poet uses many examples of alliteration. Find one example. الجناس What effect is the poet trying to achieve with this technique?

Alliteration adds to the rhythm of the poem and also links dissimilar words together. (soard and sink - silent and singing) - singing – speck / listening – long / listened – longer

- And still the singing skylark soared / And silent sank and soared to sing

2. Find two references to another listener, apart from the poet herself. Who or what is this listener?

- a. I knew he had a nest unseen. Means : (The female bird is sitting unseen)
- b. perhaps his mate sat listening long Means : (The listener is the female skylark)
- 3. How do we know that the poet leaves the cornfield before the skylark has stopped singing? She says : Perhaps his mate sat listening long, And listened longer than I did.

This shows that the poet leaves the cornfield but speculates that the bird's mate might still be listening to the song : therefore, the bird must still have been singing.

4. Rhyming words occur at the end of lines and in a pattern.

The pattern is called a rhyme scheme. Describe the rhyme scheme in this poem.

The rhyme scheme is abab. In other words the first line and third lines rhyme, as do the second and fourth.

5. What do the colours in the poem symbolise?

Green : the freshness of nature

- Blue : bright and vivid nature
- White : the purity and elegance of the butterfly.

Around the World in Eighty Days by Jules Vern - 1	873 miles
Hong Kong (a steamer) Calcutta ////////// Allaabad Kholby ////////////////////////////////////	mnes
Mr Phileas Fogg: English man - trying to complete a journey around the world in eighty days.Mr Passepartout: Frenchman - his travelling companionSir Francis Cromarty : traveller
The train stopped at eight o'clock, in the midst of a glade some fifteen miles beyond Rothal, where there were sever bungalows and workmen's cabins. The conductor, passing along the carriages, shouted, 'Passengers will get out here
Sir Frances : "Where are we?"Conductor : "At the hamlet of Kholby."Sir Frances : "Do we stop here?"Conductor : "Certainly : The railway isn't finished."Sir Frances : "What! Not finished?"Conductor : "Certainly : The railway isn't finished."Conductor : "No. There's still a matter of fifty miles to be laid from here to Allahabad, where the line begins again." (sir)
Sir Frances : "Yet you sell tickets from Bombay to Calcutta,' retorted Sir Francis, who was growing warm. Conductor : "No doubt," replied the conductor , "but the passengers know that they must provide means of transportation for themselves from Kholby to Allahabad	d."
Mr Fogg : "Sir Francis,' said Mr Fogg quietly, 'we will, if you please, look about for some means of conveyance to Allahabad.	."
Sir Frances : "Mr Fogg, this is a delay greatly to your disadvantage'. Mr Fogg : "No Sir Francis; it was foreseen. Sir Frances : "What! You knew that the way
Mr Fogg :"Not at all, but I knew that some obstacle or other would sooner or later arise on my route. 2018 Nothing therefore is last	8
Nothing, therefore, is lost. I have two gained days to sacrifice. A steamer leaves Calcutta for Hong Kong at noon, on the 25th.	•
This is the 22nd, and we shall reach Calcutta in time.'What form of transport is a steamer ?2018There was nothing to say to so confident a response.Write down the two cities which are mentioned2018
Mr Fogg and Sir Francis Cromarty, after searching the village from end to end, came back without having found anything. Mr Fogg : "I shall go afoot," said Phileas Fogg .
Passepartout, who had now rejoined his master, made a wry grimace , as he thought of his magnificent, but too frail Indian shoes After a moment's hesitation, he said, "Monsieur, I think I have found a means of conveyance." 'What?	s.
Passepartout: "An elephant! An elephant that belongs to an Indian who lives but a hundred steps from here."Mr Fogg: "Let's go and see the elephant," replied Mr Fogg.
They soon reached a small hut. Enclosed within some high palings , was the animal in question. An Indian came out of the hut, and, at their request, conducted them within the enclosure. The elephant, which w reared, not to be an animal that merely carried things around, but for warlike purposes , was half-domesticated.	as
Happily, however, for Mr Fogg, the animal's instruction in this direction had not gone far, and the elephant still preserved its natural gentleness. Kiouni – this was the name of the elephant – could doubtless travel rapidly for a lon time, and, in default of any other means of conveyance, Mr Fogg resolved to hire him. However, elephants are far from being cheap in India as they are becoming scarce.
Male elephants, as they are only suitable for circus shows, are much sought after especially as the majority are domesticated. When therefore Mr Fogg proposed to the Indian to hire Kiouni, he refused point-blank.
Mr Fogg persisted, offering the excessive sum of ten pounds an hour for the loan of the elephant to Allahabad. Refused. Twenty pounds? Refused also. Forty pounds? Still refused.
Phileas Fogg, without getting in the least flurried, then proposed to purchase the animal outright, and at fi rst offered thousand pounds for him. The Indian, perhaps thinking he was going to make a great bargain, still refused. At two thousand pounds the Indian yielded.	1 a
"What a price, good heavens!" cried Passepartout, "for an elephant." It only remained now to find a guide, which was comparatively easy. A young Parsee*, with an intelligent face, offered his services, which Mr Fog accepted, promising so generous a reward as to materially stimulate his zeal.	gg
The elephant was led out and equipped. Provisions were purchased at Kholby, and, while Sir Francis and Mr Fogg took the howdahs* on either side, Passepartout got astride the saddle-cloth between them.
The Parsee perched (alliteration) himself on the elephant's neck, and at nine o'clock they set out from the village, the animal marching (personification) off through the dense forest of palms by the shortest cut.
 * Parsee – a person living in South Asia but descended from Persia. * howdah – a seat for riding an elephant / Literary devices : alliteration & personification

Using Technology in Class

Young people love learning, but they like learning even more if they are presented with information in an interesting and challenging way. Today, I am going to give a talk about how you can use technology in Jordanian classrooms. 1. Two characteristics for the way of presenting information : a. interesting b. challenging Many classrooms now use a whiteboard as a computer screen. As a consequence, teachers can show websites on the board in front of the class. Teachers can then use the internet to show educational programmes, play educational games, music, recording of languages, and so on. 1. Reason : Using a whiteboard Result : Teachers can show websites on the board in front of the class 2. How do teachers use the whiteboard ? 1. Show websites 2: Use the internet 3. Mention the consequences = results = benefits = purposes of using the internet on the whiteboard at schools ? = 1. show educational programmes 2. play educational games. 3. play music 4. recording of languages In some countries, tablet computers are available for students to use in class. Therefore, students can use the tablets to tasks such as showing photographs, researching information, recording interviews, and creating diagrams. Tablets are ideal for pair and group work. 1. Tablets are ideal for two things : 1. pair work Teachers can perhaps ask their students to start writing a blog (an online diary), either about their own lives or as if they were someone famous. They can also create a website for the classroom. Students can contribute to the website, so for example they can post work, photos and messages. 1. Students can write a blog about two things : 1. Some students like to send messages that are under 140 letters for anyone to read. Teachers can ask students to summarise information about what they have learnt in class in the same way. If students learn to summerise quickly, they will be able to use this skill in the future. 1. Benefits of using social media by young people : / Ways of using social media by young people: 2. Send each other messages via the internet. 1. send each other photos 2. Benefits of summarizing quickly by students : result : They will be able to use this skill in the future. We all like to send emails, don't we ? Email exchanges are very useful in the classroom. Teachers can ask students to email what they have learnt to students of a similar age at another school. They could even email students in another country. As a result, students can then share information and help each other with tasks. 1. Benefits (results) of using email exchange in the process of learning: 1, share information 2, help each other with tasks. 2. Where can email exchange be useful ? 1. at another school 2. in another country Another way of communicating with other schools is talking to people over the computer. Most computers have cameras, so you can also see the people you are talking to. In this way, students who are studying English in Jordan can see what students in England are doing in the classroom while they are speaking to them. You can also use this system to invite guest speakers to give talks over a computer. For example, scientists or teachers from another country could give a lesson to the class. If you had this type of lesson, the students would be very excited. 1. Two ways of communicating with other schools : 1. Email exchange 2. talking to people over the computer 2. What is the result of taking a lesson by teacher from another country : The students would be very excited. Students often use computers at home if they have them. Students can use social media on their computer to help them with their studies, including asking other students to check and compare their work, asking questions and sharing ideas. The teacher must be part of the group, too, to monitor what is happening. Thank you for listening. Does any one have any questions? 1. Most doctors used to be sceptical about the validity of homoeopathy, acupuncture and other forms of complementary medicine. If patients wanted to receive this kind of non-conventional treatment, they used to have to consult a private practitioner who was likely not to have a medical degree. However, in recent years, the perception of this type of treatment has changed. These days, many family doctors study complementary medicine alongside conventional treatment, and many complementary medicine consultants also have medical degrees.

- A It can never substitute for immunizations . (inefficient)

As a result of careful planning, the number of healthcare services has been increasing rapidly over the past years. More than 800 different kinds of healthcare centres have been built as well as 188 dental clinics. In 2012 CE, 98 percent of Jordanian children were fully immunised, thanks to immunisation teams that had been working towards this goal for several years. Although there were remote areas of the country where people had been without consistent access to electricity and safe water, almost 99 percent of the country's population now has access.

Life Expectancy

The life expectancy figures show that Jordan's healthcare system is successful. In 1965 CE, the average Jordanian's life expectancy was age 50. In 2012 CE, this average life expectancy had risen to 73.5. According to UNICEF statistics, between 1981 CE and 1991 CE, Jordan's infant mortality rates declined more rapidly than anywhere else in the world – from 70 deaths per 1,000 births in 1981 CE to only 32 deaths per 1,000 births in 2014 CE.

Get moving!

A growing problem :

In many countries, an increasing number of young people and adults are overweight or even obese. One reason for this is the growing popularity of fast food, which didn't use to be as common as it is now.

- 1. The problem : People are overweight or even obese (obesity)
- 2. The reason : The growing popularity of fast food

Another big factor is lack of exercise.

People would often walk to school or work, but these days many more of us drive. Modern technology has also played its part; we spend more and more time focusing on computer screens. Before the Internet was invented, nobody had dreamt of online shopping, but now we can buy almost anything without leaving the sofa.

- 1. Mention two reasons for obesity . 1. Lack of exercise 2. Modern technology
- 2. Quote the sentence which indicates that you can buy things while lying on the coach . "Before the Internet was invented, nobody had dreamt of online shopping, but now we can buy almost anything."

Time to listen :

Health experts have been warning about this trend for years, and their advice is clear. Adults should aim to exercise for at least two and a half hours every week; for children and teenagers the target should be at least an hour a day. This might not sound very much. However, recent research shows that less than 50% of the British population manages this. School children are less physically active than they used to be. Girls in particular often dislike PE. This can lead to serious health problems.

1. Mention two advice of health experts .

- 1. Adults should aim to exercise for at least two and a half hours every week
- children and teenagers should exercise at least an hour a day.
 Quote the sentence which indicates that most British people don't get enough exercise . "However, recent research shows that less than 50% of the British population manages this."

It's good for you :

Experts recommend a mixture of activities. These should include moderate exercise, such as fast walking, and more strenuous exercise, like running. They also advise exercise that strengthens the muscles, for example sit-ups. The more muscle we build, the more calories we burn, and the fitter we become. In addition, exercise is a great way to cope with stress. In a recent study, patients who had been suffering from depression reported a great improvement after increased physical activity.

1. Three kinds of activity recommended by experts :

- a. Moderate exercise b. Strenuous exercise c. Exercise that strengthens the muscles
- 2. Two results for building muscles : a. The more calories we burn
 - b. The fitter we become

Useful Tips :

Of course this raises a question: how can I manage to fit in all this extra exercise? The best way is to build it into our daily lives so that it becomes a routine. It doesn't have to take much extra time. You could get off the bus one stop earlier than usual, or stand up when you're on the phone! Most importantly, we should find a sport that we enjoy doing. That way, we will all become fitter, healthier and happier.

1. Mention three ways that can help you to manage to fit in all this extra exercise :

- a. To build it into our daily lives so that it becomes a routine.
 - b. It doesn't have to take much extra time.
 - c. We should find a sport that we enjoy doing.

2. Two ways of including exercise in our daily lives :

- a. You could get off the bus one stop earlier than usual.
- b. Stand up when you're on the phone!

Doctors will be able to communicate with people in a coma.

In 2010 CE, neuroscientists confirmed that it was possible to communicate with some patients in a coma, by using a special brain scanner called an MRI. They suggested that, in the future, more meaningful dialogue with patients in a coma would be possible. Two years later, it has finally happened. The scanner, used on a man who has been in a coma for more than twelve years, proves that he has a conscious, thinking mind – a fact that had previously been disputed by many. Doctors plan to use similar brain-scanning techniques in the future to find out whether patients are in pain, or what they would like to be done in order to improve their quality of life.

A new drug will help to treat certain types of cancer almost instantly.

A new cancer drug is being trialed in Plymouth, UK, which doctors hope will extend the lives of cancer patients and reduce their symptoms overnight. It is taken as a single pill every morning, and so far patients have shown none of the usual side effects such as the sickness and hair loss that are experienced when undergoing other forms of cancer treatment. The new treatment works by blocking a protein which causes cancerous cells to grow. It will improve patients' life expectancy and quality of life much more quickly than any other treatment. The patients were interviewed a year after starting the treatment and are fit and well, saying that they are definitely going to continue the trial. They have every reason to believe the new drug is going to work. Doctors at Plymouth Hospital hope that it will help patients from all over the world.

Masdar City – a positive step?

Mega projects are extremely large investment projects, which are designed to encourage economic growth and bring new benefits to cities. Although megaprojects vary in terms of size and cost, they are all, by definition, expensive, public projects that attract a high level of interest and media coverage. Projects range from motorways, airports, stations, tunnels, bridges, to entire city complexes. etc.

The concept of a megaproject is always based on the benefits it brings to a community. However, many megaprojects have been criticised because of their negative effects on a community or the environment. This essay will look at issues with regard to Masdar City, a megaproject in Abu Dhabi.

- 2. Quote the sentence which shows the main reason to criticize mega projects ? "However, many megaprojects have been criticised because of their negative effects on a community or the environment."

Masdar City, which began its development in 2006 CE, will be the world's first carbon-neutral, zero waste artificially-created city. Covering an area of six square kilometres, when it is completed in 2025 CE, it is expected to house more than 40,000 residents, 50,000 commuters, and 1,500 businesses involved in mainly environmentally-friendly products. The city will run entirely on renewable energy sources. It is built on an advanced energy grid which monitors exactly how much electricity is being used by every outlet in the complex.

What makes Masdar city environmentally-friendly city ?

 a. Masdar City will be the world's first carbon-neutral, zero waste artificially-created city.
 b. Masdar City will have environmentally-friendly products.

Furthermore, in order to reduce its carbon footprint, Masdar City will be a car-free zone, designed to be pedestrian and cycle-friendly. Electric, driverless cars will operate as public transport vehicles, and the city will be connected to other locations by a network of roads and railways.

- 1. There are many procedures that will be implemented to reduce carbon footprint in Masdar city. Mention two. a. Masdar City will be a car-free zone, designed to be pedestrian and cycle-friendly.

Energy will be provided by solar power and wind farms, and there are also plans to build the world's largest hydrogen plant. A desalination plant will be used to provide the city's water, with 80% of water used being recycled. Biological waste will be used as an energy source too, and industrial waste will be recycled. The current residents of Masdar City are all students at the Masdar Institute of Science and Technology, a university whose students are fully committed to finding solutions to the world's energy problems. While the project has the support of many global, environmental and conservation Organisations, there is some criticism of it. It is felt that, instead of building an Artificial sustainable city, sustainability should be made a priority of existing cities.

2. Name two materials that will be recycled in Masdar city. 1. water : 80% 2. industrial waste

The Time we spend at school - 1

Afew years ago, as many as 1,000 schools across the USA started making school years longer by adding up to ten extra days to the school year or by making each school day longer by half an hour. This was because it was found that secondary school students in the USA and the UK were spending the least time at school, with an average school year of 187 days. The typical Jordanian school year is longer than this (187 days). However, none of these (average school year in Uk, USA and Jordan) are nearly as long as the school year in countries like Japan and South Korea. South Koreans attend schools for 220 days per year, and in Japan the school year numbers 243 days.

According to a study by the organization for Economic Co-operation and Development (OECD), students in Japan, Indonesia and South Korea spend the most time studying in the world. They (students in Japan, Indonesia and South Korea) Want to learn as much as they (students in Japan, Indonesia and South Korea) Can to ensure excellent exam grades. They go to school for about nine hours, although this (going to school for about 9 hours) includes optional after-school tuition and activities. They also spend about three hours on homework everyday, which (They also spend about three hours on homework everyday) is three times as much as many other countries. Their high academic achievements do suggest that the longer you study, the better you do in final exams.

In Finland, however, students are usually given less than half an hour of homework per night, and they (students in Finland) attend school for fewer and shorter days than 85 % of other developed nations. Despite this (attend schools for), they (students in Finland) achieve top marks in subjects like Maths and Science. In addition, most students also speak at least two, and often three, languages fluently.

The contradictory views of the study suggest that the number and length of school days is not the only factor in determining whether students will succeed at school or not.

A visiting student's blog post : Anita's blog - 2

Two summers ago, I (Anita) spent five months studying Arabic at the German-Jordanian University near Madaba. As my father is originally from Jordan, I grew up speaking Arabic as well as German. However, I had never studied Arabic formally, and when the opportunity came up for me to spend a year in Jordan studying Arabic, I didn't hesitate for one moment.

I have relatives in Jordan and they (relatives) arranged for me to stay with a wonderful family who (a wonderful family) live just outside Madaba. I was amazed by the number of international students there, (Jordan) who (international students) were not only from Germany, but from all over the world. Most of them (international students) had studied Arabic to a high level. I'm very familiar with colloquial Arabic, which (colloquial Arabic) is what my family speaks and understands. The Arabic class, in modern standared Arabic, was challenging, especially the grammar.

Every week, we (my family and I) had to learn a vocabulary list of around 50 words. We covered many topics. Living with a family helped to improve my Arabic-speaking skills because, while all the students heard Arabic in the classroom and streets, I could also practice it (Arabic) at home. I really put my back into it, and I earned an A on the course.

What impressed me most about students in Jordan was their (students in Jordan) behaviour and their attitude to studying. All the students who (All the students) I met appreciated the importance of their (All the students) university education and the opportunities it would give them (All the students) to contribute to their country's prosperity. They also showed extremely positive values. Everybody was honest, and people discussed problems rather than getting angry if they (people) disagreed with each other.

As someone who enjoys delicious food, beautiful places and friendly, hospitable people, studying in Jordan is one of the best decisions I have made in my life. I made many new friends. I also improved my Arabic speaking, writing and reading skills. My dream is to be fluent in Arabic oneday- and as I intend to return to Jordan as often as I can, I know I'm going to make this dream a reality.

Space Schools - 3 – مدرسة الفضاء

Studio schools are pioneering schools which (studio schools) receive funding as well as support from private businesses, and which (studio schools) seek to encourage young people to undertake a less conventional form of secondary education. These schools often specialize in one specific area, whilist understanding that the same broad range of skills and qualifications should be made available to all young people.

One such school has recently opened to educate fourteen-to eighteen-year-olds who (fourteen-to eighteen-yearolds) have a special interest in working in the space industry. Students follow a tailor-made curriculum at the school, including subjects such as Astronomy and Astrophysics. Lessons are a mixture of small-class tutorials, with projects supervised by leading companies in both the space and technology industries.

Prominent scientists and engineers are brought in as guest lecturers, with students aiming to achieve top grades in their (students) Maths and Science exams. When they (students) leave schools, they (students) will be well-placed to take any number of different career paths. 'They (students) don't have to become astronauts'! says a spokesperson for the school. 'Excellent grades in science and technology subjects can open any doors and lead to a variety of career opportunities.'

How to revise for exams - 4

Is it too late to start revising now?

A - No, it is never too late to start revising ! The first thing I would do is to draw up a revision timetable.

How should you draw up a timetable ?

B – Look at all the subjects you have to do, and work out when you are going to work on each one (subject). It is a good idea to change the order of the subjects in your timetable for each day. Try doing a little English, followed by some Maths, then Biology, and so on. This way, by changing the focus of your revision, you keep your mind fresh.

Is it best to get up early, or to revise late at night?

C – The earlier you start in the morning, the more beneficial your revision will be, because that's when you feel most awake and your memory is at its (your memory) best. I'd also recommend studying for 30-minute periods, and then taking a break. It's been proved that concentration starts to decrease after half an hour, so frequent breaks will help the brain to recover and concentration to return.

What do you mean by frequent break?

D – By a break, I mean any change of activity from studying. It (a break) could be something as simple as just getting up from your desk and listening to some music, or walking around for ten minutes.

How much exercise do you need ?

E – Physical activity is very important, of course, especially when you are studying. Exercise will make a huge difference to the way you feel. The physical activity will increase your heart rate, and in turn, that will increase your blood circulation. It (physical activity) also sends more oxygen to the brain, which (sending more oxygen to the brain) makes you revise more efficiently !

Do you mind giving me some advice about diet?

 \mathbf{F} – Nutrition is very important. You should try to eat as much fruit and vegetables as you can. It's essential not to become dehydrated, so drink lots of water.

After school - 5

In England, almost 50% of school leavers go on to higher education. The figure has not always been as high as this (50%). Twenty years ago, it was closer to 30%, and thirty years before that, it (The percentage (figure) of school leavers who go on to a higher education.) Was only about 5%. Another huge change has been financial. Before 1998 CE, higher education in the UK was completely free for UK citizens. Since then, tuition fees have been introduced. Most students borrow this money from the government. They (most students) don't have to repay it (this money) immediately. Instead, they pay it back slowly out of future earnings.

Despite the high cost, most students choose to study away from home. A recent survey of 17,000 students revealed that only 7% wanted to stay at home while they (most students) studied for their degree. Of course for most young people, living away from home means borrowing even more money from the government. So why don't students choose to avoid debt by staying at home, where they (students) don't have to pay rent? Most of them (students) say that they (students) want to move to the university of their (students) choice, rather than the nearest one (university). Another strong motive is the desire to live in a new culture.

Where do these students live? Many (these students) have rooms in halls of residence, especially in their (these students) first year; others (students) rent flats or houses. A lucky minority live in property that their (lucky minority) parents have bought for them (lucky minority). Most of them (students) need to learn to cook, do their (students) own washing and manage their(students) time and money.

Learning a foreign Language : - 6

Speaking a forien language, it is claimed, improves the functionality of your brain in several different ways. Learning new vocabulary and grammar rules provide the brain with beneficial 'exercise', which (beneficial exercise) improves memory. As well as exercising the brain, it is thought that learning a new language also presents the brain with unique challenges. These include recognising different language systems. These skills improve your chances of success in other problem-solving tasks as well. It is said that students who learn foreign languages do better, on the whole, in general tests in Maths, reading and vocabulary than students who have only mastered their mother tongue.

According to a study carried out by Pennsylvania State University, USA. Multilingual people are able to switch between two systems of speech, writing, and structure quite easily. It has been proved that they (Multilingual people) are also able to switch easily between completely different tasks. One experiment required participants to operate a driving simulator while carrying out separate tasks at the same time. The experiment showed that multilingual participants were less distracted by the other tasks and therefore made fewer driving errors.

It is believed that language learning can also improve your decision-making skills. When you speak a foreign language, you are constantly weighing up subtle differences in meaning of a word or the way that an utterance is made. This process is then transferred subconsciously to other situations in which judgment is called for, and decisions have to be made.

Finally, learning a foreign language can also improve your ability to use your mother tongue more effectively. As you become more aware of the way that a language works, you begin to apply it to the language that you use everyday. The skills you obtain from learning a foreign language, therefore, can make you a better speaker and writer in your own language.

Education in Jordan - 7

Our country has a high standard of education. This is mainly due to the fact that the government considers education a necessity. All schools, from kindergarten to secondary, are the responsibility of the Ministry of Education (MOE). Pre-school and kindergarten education is optional, followed by ten years of free, compulsory education. For higher education, students enter university, either for academic or vocational education.

Students can attend one of ten public universities. A large number of Jordanian students choose to study at these institutions, as well as foreign students from all over the world. These are undergraduates studying for a first degree, or postgraduate studying for a Master's degree, a PhD or a higher diploma.

The three universities with the most undergraduates are the University of Jordan in Amman, Yarmuk University in Irbid and Al Balqa Applied University in Salt. These are all public universities. An example of a newer university is the German-Jordanian University in Amman, which was set up in 2005 CE. It is a collaboration between the MOHE and Germany's Federal Ministry of Education and Research, and it follows Germany's model of education in applied sciences.

For students who wish to complete their university studies while working at the same time, it is also possible in some Jordanian universities to enroll onto online distance learning programmes. In the future, this option will become available in many other universities.

8 Our country's imports and exports (SB, p.66) صادرات وواردات بلدنا 2017

In this report, we (researchers) will look at the countries that (countries) Jordan trades with and what goods it (Jordan) exports and imports.

First, let's look at exports. Jordan is rich in potash and phosphate, and the extraction industry for these minerals is one of the largest in the world. Not surprisingly, two of Jordan's largest exports are chemicals and fertilisers. Pharmaceuticals and other industries represent 30% of Jordan's Gross Domestic Product(GDP), and 75% of Jordan's pharmaceuticals are exported. However, the majority (65%) of the economy is dominated by services, mostly travel and tourism. Most of Jordan's exports go to Iraq, the USA, India and Saudi Arabia.

Now let's look at imports. Unlike some other countries in the Middle East, Jordan does not have large oil or gas reserves. For that reason, Jordan has to import oil and gas for its (Jordan's) energy needs. Its (Jordan's) other main imports are cars, medicines and wheat. In 2013 CE, 23.6 % of Jordan's imports were from Saudi Arabia. This (23.6) was followed by the EU, with 17.6 % of its imports. Other imports have come from China and the United States.

Jordan has more free trade agreements than any other Arab country, and it trades freely with many countries, including the USA, Canada and Malaysia. Which other areas are important for Jordan's trade? Jordan first signed a trade agreement with the EU in 1997 CE. It (Jordan)signed a free trade agreement with Egypt, Morocco and Tunisian in 2004 CE. In 2011 CE, another trade agreement was made with the EU, Egypt, Morocco and Tunisia. Trade with the EU and North Africa in particular is likely to grow.

Learn English fast – The natural way – AB-37 - 9

Stepping into the business world - 10

Business Studies is a popular choice for students who (students) are choosing a degree course in the UK. After graduating, some (students) go on to further study, but most of them (students) take up employment. Many large companies offer graduate training schemes, which (graduate training scheme) are a kind of apprenticeship. We went to meet twenty-two-year-old Ricky Miles, who (Ricky Miles) is about to graduate in the subject.

How long have you (Ricky Miles) been studying Business Studies, Ricky?

It's a four-year course, including two periods of work experience. Each one (period of work experience) lasted six months, but they (two periods of work experience) weren't in the same year.

What exactly have you studied over those four years ?

Quite a lot! Maths, of course, Accounting ,Finance and Economics. Oh yes ,Marketing and Sales, too. I (Ricky Miles) also did a course in Management, which (a course of management) is about recruiting and managing staff, and how to deal with conflict, and a course in Advertising. We (students) all had to do IT, too, because computer skills are essential .

What did you most enjoy about the degree ?

The work experience, definitely. I learnt so much, both times, and of course it (work experience) looks great on my curriculum vitae. One of the companies offered me paid work last summer, so I managed to get even more experience that way. Also, I wouldn't have had much money last year if I hadn't had that job!

What kind of company was that, and what did you do there (in a company)?

It was a company that (a company) provides financial products – savings and pensions, mostly. At first I just 'shadowed' different people, watching what they (different people) were doing . Then I did quite a lot of checking for them (different people) – you know, checking their (different people) calculations. When I went back in the summer, I was in the sales department. My job was to follow up web enquiries, and send out further information to possible clients . I enjoyed it (Rickey's job) , and I wouldn't have had that opportunity if I hadn't done the work experience first.

What are you planning to do next?

I've just applied for a job with a bank. I have the right qualifications, but I know there will be a lot of other applicants. I'll just have to wait and see if I get an interview. If I do, I'll have to prepare really carefully.

The world of business - 11

This is an interview with a Jordanian businessman about his experiences in China.

Doing business in China

Today, we (interviwer) talk to Mr Ghanem, a businessman based in Amman who (Mr Ghanem) often visits China. We asked him (Mr Ghanem) when he first started doing business with China.

'I've been doing business with China for many years. My first trip there was in 2004 CE, and it (first trip) was not very successful.'

Why was it not successful?

'I worked for a small computer company in Amman. They(a small computer company) sent me to China when I was still quite young. If only (If only = I wish) the company had realised that the Chinese respect age and experience more than youth!'

Did you make any mistakes on that visit?

'Yes! I wish I had researched Chinese culture before I visited the country. In order to be successful in China, you need to earn their (Chinese people) respect (disrespect = opposite). Chinese business people will always ask about a company's successes in the past. However, because I worked for a new company, I could not talk about its (a new company) track record. We (Mr Ghanem's company) did not do any business deals on that first trip.'

When did you learn how to be successful in China?

'I joined a larger company and they (a large company) sent me on a cultural awareness course. On my next visit to China, it (the next visit to China) felt as if I hadn't known anything on my first visit!'

What advice can you give to people wanting to do business in China?

'Before I visit a company, I send recommendations from previous clients. I also send my business card with my job position and qualifications translated into Chinese.'

Can you tell us about your last meeting in China?

'Of course! I arrived on time. You must not arrive late, as this shows disrespect. Then, when I met the company director, I shook hands with him gently. I began the meeting by making small talk about my interesting experiences in China. During the meeting, I made sure that my voice and body language were calm and controlled. I never told a joke, as this may not be translated correctly or could cause offence.'

Is it a successful meeting?

'Yes, it was. I knew that the director had researched my business thoroughly before the meeting, so I was prepared for his (the director) detailed questions. When I began negotiating, I started with the important issues. The Chinese believe in avoiding conflict. It is always important to be patient. I was prepared to compromise, so in the end, the meeting was successful.'

Whether you're selling a new type of toothpaste to a chain of pharmacies, the latest computer software to a school or a new kind of package holiday to a travel agency – you need to know ...

كيف تقوم بعرض المبيعات (خطاب بيع) How to make a sales pitch

قم بإجراء بحثك 1. Do your research

Don't come away from a sales pitch wishing you had been better prepared. It is essential to know everything about your product. Do you know when it (your product) was developed, and where it (your product) is produced? You also need to know who the target market is – for example, the age group or income of the people who (people) might buy it (your product). Not only that, you should know all about the competition – that is, similar products on the market. Why is your product superior to others (other products) and why does it (your product) have better value?

In addition, you should know exactly which people you are speaking to, and what their (people) needs are. For example, if they (people) represent a middle-class department store in a humble neighbourhood, be ready to explain why your particular product would suit customers who (customers) do not have lots of money. What makes your product perfect for them (customers)? Most of all, you need to believe in what you're selling, and the best way to do that is to use it!

2. Prepare and practice حضر نفسك وتدرّب

Plan your presentation carefully, not just what you will say, but how you will say it _(your presentation). Will you read it word by word, use notes or memorise it? Whatever you decide, it is always a good idea to have a list of your main points, in case something interrupts you, or you simply freeze with nerves (it happens!). Then practise it _(your presentation), if possible in front of colleagues. Make changes and practise it again.

3. Be professional کن محترفا

Keep your presentation short and simple. Start with some friendly comments. For example ,thank your hosts for allowing you to speak to them (hosts), and compliment their (hosts) company. Remember to speak slowly and clearly. It is important to appear confident (even if you're nervous!). While you're speaking, don't keep your head down. Instead, look round the room and make eye contact with your audience .Smile! When you've finished speaking, invite questions. If you don't know the answers, don't pretend! Thank the questioner and promise to find out the answer (and do it (finding out the answers)!). Finally, have a summary of your presentation ready to hand out at the end of the session. I wish I had known all this (information of experience) when I started out in business! Good luck!.

Career choices - 13

Fatima Musa is talking about her career as an interpreter. Listen and read. Check your answers to exercise 1.

My job as an interpreter

My name is Fatima Musa and I (Fatima) have worked as an interpreter for five years. Many students have emailed me (Fatima) about my work because they (students) want to know what it would be like to do my (Fatima) job. So here is my reply.

I (Fatima) have always been fond of languages. My father worked in many different countries when I (Fatima) was young and we usually travelled with him(Fatima's father). When we visited a country, I always wanted to learn the language. At school I was very good at English. Therefore, I decided on a career as an interpreter.

My job now involves going to important conferences and seminars around the world. When a person speaks in English at a conference, I listen to what they say through headphones. I then translate into Arabic while the speaker is talking. I give the translation through headphones to other people at the meeting. This means that anyone in the room who speaks Arabic can understand what people are saying.

Is it an easy job? Not at all. English is not the same in all English-speaking countries. For example, the English words that are used in India are sometimes different to the words that people use in the UK, the USA or Australia. As well as knowing regional English, you also need to know a lot of specialist language. Some of the words that (the words) are used to talk about business, science or law, for example, make it almost a different language!

Unless you have a language degree, you will not be able to become an interpreter. Provided that you have a postgraduate qualification, you will probably get a job as an interpreter quite quickly. If you get an interview for a job, you will need to show that you have good listening skills and a clear speaking voice. You will also need to show that you can think quickly and that you are able to concentrate for long periods of time. If you are successful, it is a secure and rewarding job. You will probably need to travel a lot, but that is not a problem as long as you enjoy visiting other countries.

It is a very responsible job. I am aware that if I translate things badly, it could affect an important law or trade agreement between countries. However, you get a huge feeling of satisfaction when you know that people understand everything that you translate.

Quotations المستوى الثالث

Technology is a tool because it is useful and effective way of involving children . 15- Perhaps his mate sat listening long,	(the female bird sat listening to the song)	لعل رفيقته (زوجته) جلست تستمع اليه طويلا
16- And listened longer than I did.	(the poet left the cornfield)	واستمعت له لفترة اطول مما انا استمعت

speck	something small	صغير
in accord	something in agreement	تناغم
tender	fresh and young	يانع
nest	A bird lays eggs in it	عش
stalk	The long, upright part of the plant that support the leaves	ساق النبتة

1. The poet feels content as she walks through a cornfield.

2. The skylark flying in the sky.

3. It doesn't sing as it flies lower.

- 4. The butterflies move quickly in the cornfield.
- 5. The skylark's nest is hidden in the cornfield.
- 6. The poet imagines that its (companion / mate / the female bird) is also listening somewhere in the cornfield.

Answer the questions about the poem.

1. The poet uses many examples of alliteration. Find one example. الجناس What effect is the poet trying to achieve with this technique?

Alliteration adds to the rhythm of the poem and also links dissimilar words together. (soard and sink - silent and singing) - singing – speck / listening – long / listened – longer - And still the singing skylark soared / And silent sank and soared to sing

2. Find two references to another listener, apart from the poet herself. Who or what is this listener?

- a. I knew he had a nest unseen. Means : (The female bird is sitting unseen)
- b. perhaps his mate sat listening long Means : (The listener is the female skylark)
- 3. How do we know that the poet leaves the cornfield before the skylark has stopped singing? She says : Perhaps his mate sat listening long, And listened longer than I did.

This shows that the poet leaves the cornfield but speculates that the bird's mate might still be listening to the song : therefore, the bird must still have been singing.

4. Rhyming words occur at the end of lines and in a pattern. The pattern is called a rhyme scheme. Describe the rhyme scheme in this poem.

The rhyme scheme is abab. In other words the first line and third lines rhyme, as do the second and fourth.

5. What do the colours in the poem symbolise?

Green : the freshness of nature

- Blue : bright and vivid nature
- White : the purity and elegance of the butterfly.

Around the World in Eighty Days by Jules Vern - 1	873 miles
Hong Kong (a steamer) Calcutta ////////// Allaabad Kholby ////////////////////////////////////	mnes
Mr Phileas Fogg: English man - trying to complete a journey around the world in eighty days.Mr Passepartout: Frenchman - his travelling companionSir Francis Cromarty : traveller
The train stopped at eight o'clock, in the midst of a glade some fifteen miles beyond Rothal, where there were sever bungalows and workmen's cabins. The conductor, passing along the carriages, shouted, 'Passengers will get out here
Sir Frances : "Where are we?"Conductor : "At the hamlet of Kholby."Sir Frances : "Do we stop here?"Conductor : "Certainly : The railway isn't finished."Sir Frances : "What! Not finished?"Conductor : "Certainly : The railway isn't finished."Conductor : "No. There's still a matter of fifty miles to be laid from here to Allahabad, where the line begins again." (sir)
Sir Frances : "Yet you sell tickets from Bombay to Calcutta,' retorted Sir Francis, who was growing warm. Conductor : "No doubt," replied the conductor , "but the passengers know that they must provide means of transportation for themselves from Kholby to Allahabad	d."
Mr Fogg : "Sir Francis,' said Mr Fogg quietly, 'we will, if you please, look about for some means of conveyance to Allahabad.	."
Sir Frances : "Mr Fogg, this is a delay greatly to your disadvantage'. Mr Fogg : "No Sir Francis; it was foreseen. Sir Frances : "What! You knew that the way
Mr Fogg :"Not at all, but I knew that some obstacle or other would sooner or later arise on my route. 2018 Nothing therefore is last	8
Nothing, therefore, is lost. I have two gained days to sacrifice. A steamer leaves Calcutta for Hong Kong at noon, on the 25th.	•
This is the 22nd, and we shall reach Calcutta in time.'What form of transport is a steamer ?2018There was nothing to say to so confident a response.Write down the two cities which are mentioned2018
Mr Fogg and Sir Francis Cromarty, after searching the village from end to end, came back without having found anything. Mr Fogg : "I shall go afoot," said Phileas Fogg .
Passepartout, who had now rejoined his master, made a wry grimace , as he thought of his magnificent, but too frail Indian shoes After a moment's hesitation, he said, "Monsieur, I think I have found a means of conveyance." 'What?	s.
Passepartout: "An elephant! An elephant that belongs to an Indian who lives but a hundred steps from here."Mr Fogg: "Let's go and see the elephant," replied Mr Fogg.
They soon reached a small hut. Enclosed within some high palings , was the animal in question. An Indian came out of the hut, and, at their request, conducted them within the enclosure. The elephant, which w reared, not to be an animal that merely carried things around, but for warlike purposes , was half-domesticated.	/as
Happily, however, for Mr Fogg, the animal's instruction in this direction had not gone far, and the elephant still preserved its natural gentleness. Kiouni – this was the name of the elephant – could doubtless travel rapidly for a lon time, and, in default of any other means of conveyance, Mr Fogg resolved to hire him. However, elephants are far from being cheap in India as they are becoming scarce.
Male elephants , as they are only suitable for circus shows, are much sought after especially as the majority are domesticated. When therefore Mr Fogg proposed to the Indian to hire Kiouni, he refused point-blank.
Mr Fogg persisted, offering the excessive sum of ten pounds an hour for the loan of the elephant to Allahabad. Refused. Twenty pounds? Refused also. Forty pounds? Still refused.
Phileas Fogg, without getting in the least flurried, then proposed to purchase the animal outright, and at fi rst offered thousand pounds for him. The Indian, perhaps thinking he was going to make a great bargain, still refused. At two thousand pounds the Indian yielded.	d a
"What a price, good heavens!" cried Passepartout, "for an elephant." It only remained now to find a guide, which was comparatively easy. A young Parsee*, with an intelligent face, offered his services, which Mr Fog accepted, promising so generous a reward as to materially stimulate his zeal.	gg
The elephant was led out and equipped. Provisions were purchased at Kholby, and, while Sir Francis and Mr Fogg took the howdahs* on either side, Passepartout got astride the saddle-cloth between them.
The Parsee perched (alliteration) himself on the elephant's neck, and at nine o'clock they set out from the village, the animal marching (personification) off through the dense forest of palms by the shortest cut.
 * Parsee – a person living in South Asia but descended from Persia. * howdah – a seat for riding an elephant / Literary devices : alliteration & personification
