Read the following text carefully, and then in your ANSWER BOOKLET answer all the questions that follow it. Your answers should be based on the text.

Our country has a high standard of education. This is mainly due to the fact that the government considers education a necessity. All schools, from kindergarten to secondary, are the responsibility of the Ministry of Education (MOE). Pre-school and kindergarten education is optional, followed by ten years of free, compulsory education. For higher education, students enter university, either for academic or vocational courses.

Students can attend of ten public universities, or one of nineteen private universities. A large number of Jordanian students choose to study at these institutions, as well as foreign students from all over the world. These are undergraduates studying for a first degree, or postgraduates studying for a Master's degree, a PhD or a higher diploma.

The three universities with the most undergraduates are the University of Jordan in Amman, Yarmouk University in Irbid and Al Balqa Applied University in Salt. These are all public universities. An example of a newer university is the German-Jordanian University in Amman, which was set up in 2005 CE. It is a collaboration between the MOHE and Germany's Federal Ministry of Education and Research. And it follows Germany's model of education in Applied Sciences.

For students who wish to complete their university studies while working at the same time. It is also possible in some Jordanian universities to enroll onto online distance learning programmes. In the future, this option will become available in many other universities.

The advantages and disadvantages of internet

With the development of technology and the massive need of the internet. The internet became an essential element in our daily life. The internet could affect our life in many different ways because all our needs depend on the internet. Everyone needs the internet in his work like doctors, engineers, teachers and students.

Using the internet has many advantages. It makes us able to collect information about any subject in a simple and a convenient way. It could make people communicate with other people from different countries easily. In addition, it made great contributions in medicine and enables doctors to make surgeries online. Moreover, it made the students able to attend classes and conferences held in other countries from the place where they live.

However, the internet has some disadvantages because it affected the relationships between relatives badly. Moreover, the number of serious crimes is increasing dramatically which made many of us live in fear and agony. The internet will always be a good invention if it is used for the prosperity of our future.
