Q1/ A. Read the text carefully ,and then in your ANSWER BOOKLET answer all the questions that follow. Your answers should be based on the text.

Our country has a high standard of education. This is mainly due to the fact that the government considers education a necessity. All schools, from kindergarten to secondary, are the responsibility of the Ministry of Education (MOE). Pre-school and kindergarten education is optional, followed by ten years of free, compulsory education. For higher education, students enter university, either for academic or vocational courses.

Students can attend one of ten public universities, or one of nineteen private universities. A large number of Jordanian students choose to study at these institutions, as well as foreign students from all over the world. These are undergraduates studying for a first degree, or postgraduates studying for a Master's degree, a PhD or a higher diploma. The three universities with the most undergraduates are the University of Jordan in Amman, Yarmouk University in Irbid and Al Balqa Applied University in Salt. These are all public universities.

An example of a newer university is the German-Jordanian University in Amman, which was set up in 2005 CE. It is a collaboration between the MOHE and Germany's Federal Ministry of Education and Research, and it follows Germany's model of education in Applied Sciences.

1. The German-Jordan University was established by cooperation of two German and Jordanian educational organization . What are they?
2. Mention three universities that have the largest number of undergraduate students.
3. Quote the sentence that shows the year when the German-Jordan University was established
4. Find a word in the first paragraph that means the same as “obligatory; required”
5. What does the underlined pronoun "it" , in the last paragraph, refer to?
6. Students of different levels go to university to get degrees. What are the four degrees that you can get at university after leaving school?
7. The writer states that foreign students from all over the world come to study in the Jordanian universities. Suggest three reasons which make them choose Jordan for studying
8. Students who complete their studies while working might face a lot of difficulties. Think of this statement and in two sentences write down your point of view.

A: Imagine you are an editor in the Jordanian Time. You are asked to edit the following lines that have underlined mistakes. Correct these mistakes.

The earlier you start in the morning, the more beneficial your revition will be, because that's when you feel most awake and your memori is at its best. I'd also recommend studying for 30-minute periods, and then taking a break ? It's been proving that koncentration starts to decrease after half an hour, so frequent breaks will help the brain recover.
