READING: For questions (1 - 10), read the following texts carefully, and then choose the correct answer from A, B, C or D to complete the sentence below each text. (50 points)

1) In just a few years' time, experts say that billions of machines will be connected to each other and to the Internet. As a consequence, computers will increasingly run our lives for us. For example, your fridge will know when you need more milk and add it to your online shopping list; your windows will close if it is likely to rain; your watch will record your heart rate and email your doctor; and your sofa will tell you when you need to stand up and get some exercise!

How will the 'Internet of Things' help you to keep fit, according to the text?

- A) Your fridge will know when you need more milk and add it to your online shopping list.
- B) Your windows will close if it is likely to rain.
- C) Your watch will record your heart rate.
- D) Your sofa will tell you when you need to stand up and get some exercise!

2) Most doctors used to be sceptical about the validity of homoeopathy, acupuncture and other forms of complementary medicine. If patients wanted to receive this kind of this treatment, they used to have to consult a private practitioner who was likely not to have a medical degree.

The underlined word (who) in the text refers to

- A) doctors
- B) patients
- C) a private practitioner
- D) forms

3) Ten-year-old Adeeb al-Balooshi caught Sheikh Hamdan's attention with his invention - a prosthetic limb for his father. The Sheikh has taken a special interest in the boy, and hopes that this will give the young inventor more self-confidence and inspire other young Emirati inventors. Adeeb got the idea while he was at the beach with his family. Adeeb's father could not swim in the sea as without risk, getting his leg wet. This inspired Adeeb to invent a waterproof prosthetic leg. Adeeb has invented several other devices, including a tiny cleaning robot, a heart monitor, and a fireproof helmet.

The device that Adeeb has particularly invented for his father is

- A) a heart monitor.
- B) a fireproof helmet.
- C) a waterproof prosthetic leg.
- D) a tiny cleaning robot.

4) In the mornings, after breakfast, one or more of our trained and experienced teachers will arrive, and you will have three hours of intensive tuition. Then, after enjoying lunch together around the table, you'll visit local places of interest, go shopping, take part in sports, etc. In the evenings, there will be a choice of cultural activities, for example the theatre or a concert, or you may prefer to relax at home and chat (in English, naturally!). Whatever you do, your teachers will be with you, acting as guides, tutors and friends.

The most formal part of the day is

- A) In the mornings
- B) In the midday
- C) after enjoying lunch
- D) In the evenings

- A) a blog B) an example C) a classroom D) a website

8) The earlier you start in the morning, the more beneficial your revision will be, because that's when you feel most awake and your memory is at its best. I'd also recommend studying for 30-minute periods, and then taking a break. It's been proved that concentration starts to decrease to after half an hour, so frequent breaks will help the brain recover and concentration to return.

The benefits of doing revision in the morning are

A) I'd also recommend studying for 30-minute periods, and then taking a break.

B) You feel most awake and your memory is at its best.

C) Frequent breaks will help the brain recover and concentration to return

D) The earlier you start in the morning, the more beneficial your revision will be.

9) Now let's look at imports. Unlike some other countries in the Middle East, Jordan does not have large oil or gas reserves. For that reason Jordan has to import oil and gas for its energy needs. In 2013 CE, 23.6% of Jordan's imports were from Saudi Arabia. This was followed by the EU, with 17.6% of its imports. Other imports have come from China and the United States.

The country that supplied Jordan with nearly a quarter of its imports is

- A) China B) The United States. C) The EU D) Saudi Arabia.

10) Yes! I wish I had researched Chinese culture before I visited the country. In order to be successful in China, you need to earn their respect. Chinese business people will always ask about a company's successes in the past. However, because I worked for a new company, I could not talk about its track record. We did not do any business deals on that first trip.' 'I joined a larger company and they sent me on a cultural awareness course.
