PAGE THREEQuestion Two : (20 points)

Read the following text carefully, and then in your ANSWER BOOKLET answer all the questions that follow. Your answers should be based on the text.

Students can attend a public university or a private university. A large number of Jordanian students choose to study at these institutions, as well as foreign students from all over the world. These are undergraduates studying for a first degree, or postgraduates studying for a Master's degree, a PhD or a higher diploma.

The three universities with the most undergraduates are the University of Jordan in Amman, Yarmouk University in Irbid and Al Balqa Applied University in Salt. These are all public universities. An example of a newer university is the German-Jordanian University in Amman, which was set up in 2005 CE. It is a collaboration between the MOHE and Germany's Federal Ministry of Education and Research, and it follows Germany's model of education in Applied Sciences.

For students who wish to complete their university studies while working at the same time, it is also possible in some Jordanian universities to enrol onto online distance learning programmes. In the future, this option will become available in many other universities.

1. Jordanian universities offer different types of postgraduate degrees. Write them down. (6 points)
2. Quote the sentence which states the two groups of students who study at the Jordanian universities. (2 points)
3. The text states some examples of public universities in Jordan. Write down two of these universities. (4 points)
4. Find a word in the text that means " someone who has not yet completed their first degree". (2 points)
5. What does the underlined word "it" refer to? (2 points)
6. It is said that online distance learning is a good option for someone who wants a degree but unable to attend university. Think of this statement, and in two sentences, write down your point of view. (4 points)
