Business Studies is a popular choice for students who are choosing a degree course in the UK. After graduating, some go on to further study, but most of them take up employment.

We went to meet twenty – two-year – old Ricky Miles, who is about to graduate in the subject.

What exactly have you studied over those four years, Ricky?

Quite a lot! Accounting, Finance and Economics. Oh yes, Marketing and Sales, too. I also did a course in Management, which is about managing staff, and how to deal with conflict. Did you get any work experience?

Yes, one of the companies offered me paid work last summer, so I managed to get even more experience that way.

What kind of company was that, and what did you do there?

It was a company that provides financial products – savings and pensions, mostly. At first I just 'shadowed' different people, watching what they were doing. Then I did quite a lot of checking for them – you know, checking their calculations. When I went back in the summer, I was in the sales department. My job was to follow up web enquiries, and send out further information to possible clients.

Question Number One (22 points)

- A. 1. Ricky Miles studied different courses at the university to get a degree in business studies. Write down two of these courses. (2 points)
- 2. Ricky Miles' job in the sales department required doing two things. Write these two things down. (4 points)
- 3. What does the underlined word "me" refer to? (2 points)
- 4. Find a word in the text which means "maths; work with numbers." (3 points)
- 5. Quote the sentence which states what students do after graduation. (3 points)
- 6. Some people assure that work experience is an essential factor for any job. Think of this statement, and in two sentences, write down your point of view. (3 points)
- 7. It is a common thing for some people to change jobs in lifetime for different reasons. Suggest three possible reasons that make people change their jobs. (2 points)
