1) In Finland, however, students are usually given less than half an hour of homework per night, and they attend school for fewer and shorter days than 85% of other developed nations. Despite this, they achieve top marks in subjects like Maths and Science. In addition, most students also speak at least two, and often three, languages fluently. The contradictory views of the study suggest that the number and length of school days is not the only factor in determining whether students will succeed at school or not.

Text One: (25 points)

Masdar City, which began its development in 2006 CE, will be the world's first carbon-neutral, zero waste artificially-created city. Covering an area of six square kilometres, when it is completed in 2025 CE, it is expected to house more than 40,000 residents. Furthermore, in order to reduce its carbon footprint, Masdar City will be a car-free zone, designed to be pedestrian and cycle-friendly. Electric, driverless cars will operate as public transport vehicles, and the city will be connected to other locations by a network of roads and railways.

Energy will be provided by solar power and wind farms, and there are also plans to build the world's largest hydrogen plant. A desalination plant will be used to provide the city's water, with 80% of water used being recycled. Biological waste will be used as an energy source too, and industrial waste will be recycled. The current residents of Masdar City are all students at the Masdar Institute of Science and Technology. It's a university whose students are fully committed to finding solutions to the world's energy problems.

1. There are many procedures will be implemented to reduce carbon footprint in Masdar City. Write down two of these procedures. (6 points)
2. Find a word in the text which means "The process of removing salt from sea water so that it can be used". (4 points)

Text Two: (25 points)

My name is Fatima Musa and I have worked as an interpreter for five years. Many students have emailed me about my work because they want to know what it would be like to do my job. So here is my reply.

My job now involves going to important conferences and seminars around the world. Is it an easy job? Not at all. English is not the same in all English-speaking countries. For example, the English words that are used in India are sometimes different to the words that people use in the UK, the USA or Australia. As well as knowing regional English, you also need to know a lot of specialist language.

If you get an interview for a job, you will need to show that you have good listening skills and a clear speaking voice. You will also need to show that you can think quickly and that you are able to concentrate for long periods of time. If you are successful, it is a secure and rewarding job.

1. English words are not the same in all English-speaking countries. Write down two countries which use different English words. (6 points)
2. It is essential to show certain skills during an interview as an interpreter. Write down two of these skills. (6 points)
3. Find a word in the text which means “relating to a particular region or area.” (4 points)
4. What does the underlined pronoun “they” refer to? (3 points)
5. “I’ve learnt that making a living is not the same thing as making a life”. Think of this statement, and in two sentences, write down your point of view. (6 points)
