section :

Modal verbs of obligation and prohibition

English has several different ways of talking about obligation (something that is necessary), prohibition (something that we are obliged not to do), permission (something that we are permitted to do) , and giving advice. Some of these use modal verbs such as must, should and can. Modal verbs do not change form in the present tense.

Now choose the correct verb for these sentences:

1. You ----- come to the meeting but it would help us all if you're there.

mustn't

don't have to

2. I can't get a connection on my phone. ----- I borrow yours?
